Mr. Bergmann denounced Burke as a deliberate murderer, and was so positive in his statement that an "Evening. World" reporter went with him in a buggy to find the witnesses.

Mr. Begmann and the reporter went to Foley's saloon, close to the Burke shanty, at the upper end of South Beach. There Mr. Bergmann called an old man who was sitting at a table and said:

The nomination by the chief Tammany topsy in the case of Frederick Berg- organ of Comptroller Ashbel P. No politician or public official has got himself disliked to quickly as Mr. Fitch.

Although Mr. Fitch has repeatedly declared that he is not a candidate for Mayor, the politicians, nevertheless, believe that he is laying pipes for acminstion. He is the brewers' candidate for Mayor. The brewers would spend a great deal of money to secure From the heads of departments down

According to Dr. Thompson's report, the gun could not have been acchientally discharged, as claimed by Burke, and must have been fired by some human hand. The autopsy showed that the charge had entered Bergmann's body on a horizontal line, and a No. 1 buckshot, had penerated the liver, kidneys and intestines and shattered the backbone. In the wound were small pieces of clothing and bits of paper, which came from a notebook which Bergmann carried in hils pocket.

Tammany men say that Croker made a great mistake when he made Mr. Fitch is that he compton the trollers of bijection the Tammany per sillightest provocation. He has particularly antagonized the friends of Ex. Comptroller Myers by trying to show that his administration of the Comptroller's office for the six months he has been in charge was superior to that of Mr. Myers s in six years. That in itself, it is said, is sufficient to kill his chances as a harmony candidate.

More galling still to Tammany men are efforts on Mr. Fitch's part to show that he does not wear a Tammany collar, when, in fact, it is known that Mr. Fitch is a member of Tammany Ifali, and votes as a Tammany man in all matters of policy relating to the city government.

The result of Dr. Thompson's autopsy confirms the belief the police have entertained from the outset that Burke deliberately shot Bergmann.

Henry S. Bergmann. of 192 Chrystle street, New York, who claims to be a brother of the dead man, viewed the remains last night. He became very much excited, and said that he would avenge his brother's murder. He went to police Headquarters, where old man Burke is locked up, and asked to see nim. He had a wild expression on his face and his voice trembled as he demanded of the sergeant to see the prisoner.
